CHILD RIGHTS AND PROTECTION SUMMER RESIDENTIAL CAMP REPORT – 2024

DATE: 02.07.2024 – 05.07.2024

VENUE: Yercaud

CAMP:

Thozhamai, in collaboration with Tamil Nadu Teachers Education University and supported by UNICEF, proudly conducted a 4-day summer residential camp at Yercaud from July 2-5, 2024 regarding B.Ed. core paper on Child Rights and Protection. This event brought together of 38 passionate educators from 38 districts to enhance their capacity in teaching the syllabus on Child Rights and Protection.

The camp was expertly organized by Adv. Mr. Prabakar, with valuable insights from Mr. Devaneyan, Director of Thozhamai. Participants found the sessions eye-opening, promising a commitment to self-practising Child Rights principles before imparting them to student teachers. On account of this the NSS Coodinator Dr. V.Vidhya, Assistant professor of Bon Secours College of Education participated in the camp.

Comprehensive sessions on Understanding Child Rights, including global and Indian perspectives. Detailed discussions on Violence Against Children, more insights into the Legal Mechanisms for Protecting Child Rights. Strategies for creating Child-Friendly Schools and the skills required for Child Rights educators. As a significant outcome, we were able to develop the impactful case studies and was beneficial in all aspects.
