Objective:

The main purpose of the field visit for the celebration of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav by Teacher's Education Institute (TEI) as per the direction of NCTE The event was organized on the theme of "Cultural Pride". To promote and transform for the future society through the teachers. It also helps to write the record-Drama and Art.

Program:

A cultural heritage site visit was organized by Bon Secours College of Education Thanjavur on 08.2.25 under the guidance of Rev.Sr.Sandanamary, Administrator and Dr.K.A.Antonysamy,Principal Bon Secours College of Education. Preservice teachers with 3 faculty members went to visit the Silapathikara Kalaikoodam at Poombuhar and Dharasuram Temple at Kumbakonam.

We arrived at the Poompuhar located at Mayiladuthurai District On 10.30 AM. It was the capital of the Chola empire and flourished as early as the 4th century BC. The Silappathikara Art Gallery provides information about the area'spast and handicrafts. Poompuhar's natural beach is a major attraction. The town was once a port city called Kaveri Poompattinam. Then we departed from there and went to the Airavatesvara temple in Darasuram, around 2.30 P.M. It was built in the 12th century by the Chola king Second Rajaraja Chola .The temple is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is known for its Dravidian architecture and intricate art. The temple is named after Airavat, the white elephant of Indra. The temple walls have inscriptions by the Chola and Pandya kings. The pre -service teachers visited all the Historical places and had a detailed notes. The trip as a successfully ended around 6.30 P.M at our college campus organized by Mrs.S.Lakshmi BSCE.
