ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE PROGRAM

DATE: 13.08.2024 – 16.08.2024

OBJECTIVE:

To promote awareness and prevention of ragging, many colleges organize various competitions aimed at engaging students in creating a safer and more inclusive environment. These competitions serve as a platform to raise awareness, encourage proactive behaviour, and foster a positive college culture. This report provides an overview of anti-ragging related competitions conducted in our college, detailing their objectives, participation, outcomes, and recommendations for future events.

PROGRAM:

DAY 1: 13.08.2024

Short film: To visually convey the impacts of ragging and the importance of a respectful and supportive campus environment. Approximately 95 Pre service teachers of B.Ed., II year and all the faculty members attended the screening. The film effectively communicated the anti-ragging message, prompting discussions and reflections among viewers. It served as a powerful tool to raise awareness and generate empathy.

Poster Making: To create impactful visual messages that promote anti-ragging awareness. The competition highlighted students' creativity and contributed to a visually engaging anti-ragging environment. Nearly 5 members took part in the competition.

Essay Writing : In the fore noon session around 20 pre-service teachers participated in the essay competition. To encourage students to reflect on and articulate the importance of preventing ragging and fostering a respectful campus environment.

Selfie Corner: In the afternoon session, all the Pre-service teachers were asked to engage themselves in an interactive way while promoting anti-ragging messages. Over 95 pre-service teachers took selfies and shared them on social media with anti-ragging hashtags. The selfie corner created a positive and interactive way for students to engage with the anti-ragging message, increasing visibility and support on social media.

DAY 3: 16.08.2024

Orientation Programme: To provide awareness about ragging the Chief Guest V.M. Indira, B.A., LLB., gave an overview of anti-ragging policies, legal implications, and available support services. She explained the sections coming under the Prohibition of Anti-Ragging and enhanced understanding of anti-ragging measures among students and staff. Positive feedback indicated that the orientation was informative and beneficial in setting a tone of respect and inclusivity.

Logo designing contest: To design a logo that symbolizes the college's commitment to preventing ragging. Encourage students to use their artistic skills to contribute to a meaningful cause. Involve students in a creative activity that promotes awareness and advocacy against ragging.

The Anti-Ragging Committee's recent activities have effectively contributed to promoting a safe and respectful campus environment. Through the short film, orientation program, and various competitions, students have been engaged and educated about the importance of preventing ragging. Continued innovation and evaluation will further enhance the impact of these initiatives in fostering a supportive and inclusive campus community.
